Jessica Morse, Candidate for Congress in CA-03, Announces More Than $300,000 Raised in Three Weeks

ROSEVILLE – Today, Congressional candidate Jessica Morse (CA-03) released her fundraising totals for the third quarter. Since announcing her candidacy on September 12, 2023, Morse raised $318,000 from 912 individuals. Her cash on hand is $500,000.

“I am truly humbled by the response to my candidacy and thankful to everyone who stepped up to support me in the first three weeks of this campaign,” said Morse. “From the cost of living to wildfires to affordable housing and traffic, people tell me they want someone who understands their struggles and will put aside our differences to solve these problems.”

In addition to this tremendous financial support, close to 100 individuals signed up to volunteer for the campaign. “Every volunteer is important to this grassroots campaign and will help introduce me to voters across the district and win next November,” said Morse.

Congressional District 3 encompasses ten counties from the Sierras to Death Valley National Park, including Alpine, El Dorado, Inyo, Mono, Nevada, Placer, Plumas, Sacramento, Sierra, and Yuba Counties.

MORE ABOUT JESSICA MORSE

In 2019 Morse was appointed Deputy Secretary for Forest and Wildland Resilience at the California Natural Resources Agency. Last year, she was appointed to the U.S. Wildland Fire Mitigation and Management

Commission. Prior to her work on wildfire resilience, Morse held a Top Secret security clearance and spent a decade working in national security for the US Defense Department, the US State Department, and USAID, the humanitarian branch of the State Department. In 2005, Morse was sent to Iraq, working as a civilian side-by-side with US troops.
